

Janitorial and House Cleaning

Janitorial

Maid Service

Need daily, weekly or one time cleaning services for your home or business? Jardis does that. We have been in the cleaning industry for over 20 years, we can do regular janitorial, or specialized services like ceiling tile cleaning, striping and "waxing" not wax anymore, but specialized finishes.

We have the knowledge and expertize to do it right.

Moving?

Is the new house you're moving into still full of the previous occupants dirt?

Want your damage deposit back but don't have the time to clean yourself?

We work with property management companies and clean top to bottom so we can do it for you too! As they say "We won't cut corners, we will clean them" we clean with commercial grade products and equipment, and always work off of a room by room multi point check list. We can also consult with realtors and their clients to help clean, de-clutter, de-personalize and stage a home for showing, highlighting its best attributes.
